prevention of the use of the financial system for the purposes of money laundering or terrorist financing;

Policy means this Anti-Financial Crime Policy;

Terrorist Financing means the provision or collection of funds, by any means, directly or indirectly, with the intention that they be used or in the knowledge that they are to be used, in full or in part, in order to commit, or to contribute to the commission of, any of the offences referred to in Articles 3 to 10 of Directive (EU) 2017/541 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 March 2017 on combating terrorism and replacing Council Framework Decision 2002/475/JHA and amending Council Decision 2005/671/JHA.

2. PURPOSE OF THE POLICY

The purpose of this Policy is to prevent EPPE, Employees and Business Partners from being exposed to Financial Crime. This involves identifying the potential areas where Financial Crime may occur, strengthening procedures to minimize the risk as well as complying with all legal and regulatory requirements.

3. SCOPE OF THE POLICY

This Policy applies to all Employees in all the countries and territories that EPPE Group operates in.

EPPE also requires its Business Partners to abide by these high standards when engaged in business with EPPE. EPPE does not have business relationships with Business Partners who are known to be in violation of the principles underlying the Policy.

4. EPPE'S COMMITMENT

EPPE believes that it is of utmost importance to combat Financial Crime and is committed to take all necessary steps to prevent such activities.

5. GOLDEN RULE

EPPE would rather lose a particular business opportunity than engage in illegal or unethical conduct.

6. RISK ASSESSMENT AND MITIGATING MEASURES

In order to address the risk of Financial Crime, the EPPE Group Company ensures that it understands the nature and extent of its exposure to Financial Crime by performing a regular risk assessment, and that it adopts adequate mitigating measures which are subject to regular reviews and are continuously refined and improved.

7. BASIC PRINCIPLES

7.1. Business Partner Due Diligence

The prime method for preventing Financial Crime is by carrying out “Know Your Customer/Client” procedures. With thorough knowledge of Business Partners, unusual or suspicious behaviour can be identified, including false identities, unusual transactions, changing behaviour or other indicators where Financial Crime may be occurring.

Whilst there is no legal requirement to put in place formal procedures for evidencing the identity of EPPE Business Partners, in forming new business relationship or considering undertaking a significant one-off transaction, it is expected and prudent for management of EPPE Group Companies to satisfy themselves as to the identity of the parties with whom they are transacting.

Therefore, before entering into a business relationship, EPPE Group Company carefully checks its prospective Business Partners in accordance with the EPPE Group KYC (Know Your Customer) Directive.

Should the KYC procedure reveal any concerns or irregularities as regards the Business Partner's identity and suitability, EPPE Group Company adopts adequate mitigating measures outlined in the EPPE Group KYC Directive, including a decision not to enter into the business relationship or undertake the business transaction.

It is the intention of EPPE for its Employees to be alert to potential suspicious circumstances in all their business dealing and to raise concerns as and when they arise.

7.2. Four-Eyes Principle

As one of the risk mitigating measures, EPPE strictly follows the “four-eyes” principle, meaning that every legally binding document as well as any money transfer is signed and approved by at least two EPPE representatives.

7.3. Cash Payments Limit

EPPE Group Company defines maximum value limit for making and/or accepting payment in cash in its internal processes and rules of operations in accordance with local limitations on cash payments set by law, but also taking into account its profile and character of its activities and business relationships. In the absence of such EPPE Group Company definition, the maximum value limit is 250 000 CZK (approx. EUR 10,000 or its equivalent in the local currency) or the limit set by local law whichever is lower. Larger cash payment (exceeding the maximum value limit) is allowed only when it is customary in such situation; in that case the cash transfer is always duly documented.

8. COMMUNICATIONS AND TRAINING

EPPE Group Company ensures that the Policy is communicated to all Employees. EPPE Group Company assesses which Employees are exposed to the issues mentioned above and where appropriate secures that these Employees are regularly trained on subject of this Policy. The frequency and scope of such trainings is to be decided by the EPPE Group Company.

EPPE expects the same high anti-financial crime standards as set forth in this Policy from all Business Partners acting for, on behalf of, or in conjunction with EPPE. EPPE communicates these standards to its Business Partners where necessary and appropriate.

9. MONITORING AND REVIEW

EPPE Group Company ensures that a regular review of the implementation of this Policy is conducted, considering its suitability, adequacy and effectiveness, and that any identified improvements are made as soon as possible. EPPE Group Company ensures that internal control systems and procedures are subject to regular audits to provide assurance that they are effective in countering Financial Crime activities.

10. RESPONSIBILITIES

The prevention, detection and reporting of Financial Crime and any other violation of this Policy are the responsibility of all EPPE Employees. All Employees must ensure that they read, understand and comply with this Policy. Managers, in particular, are called upon to actively promote the implementation of this Policy.

11. HOW TO RAISE A CONCERN

All Employees and Business Partners are encouraged to raise concerns about any issue or suspicion of Financial Crime activity or other violation of this Policy at the earliest possible stage in accordance with the EPPE Group Reporting of Serious Concerns Policy.

EPPE aims to encourage openness and will support anyone who raises genuine concerns in good faith under this Policy, even if they turn out to be mistaken.

12. BREACHES OF THE POLICY

An Employee who breaches this Policy may face disciplinary actions, which could result in the termination of employment, as well as claims for damages and criminal prosecution. On the other side, no Employee will face disciplinary actions or any other detrimental treatment for refusing to commit Financial Crime or for complying with this Policy, even if it may result in EPPE losing business.

EPPE may terminate its relationships with other individuals and organizations working on EPPE's behalf if they breach this Policy.

13. IMPLEMENTATION

In order to support EPPE Group's decision to mitigate against financial, regulatory and reputational risk and ensure regulatory compliance in accordance with the Policy, EPPE Group Company is responsible for implementation of measures and processes defined by this Policy that are necessary and appropriate with regard to the respective EPPE Group Company's profile and character of its activities and business relationships.
